

you said we did

Salome to find more information on the different newsletters and mailing lists there are

Synergy have a monthly newsletter about events and activities. The newsletter is available to everyone with a learning disability living in Camden

LDN send out email updates about activities that are available to everyone with a learning disability. You can be added to the email list by contacting communityengagement@ldnlondon.org

There are other newsletters and mailing lists, such as CYPDS and Special Parents Forum

We are finding out more about how to receive those newsletters

Salome to speak to the Greenwood Centre, libraries and community centres to make sure information is all in the same place.

- Libraries are working with CLDS to produce an Easy Read welcome guide. The welcome guide would be available in print

- Libraries would like to get ideas from Planning Together on where to display the welcome guide

- Camden is interested to know what Planning Together think is the best way to make information available

- We are still contacting community centres to find out how they provide information. We will provide an update when we have know more about it.

Take feedback about social hubs to discuss more at the agenda planning group.

- We will discuss this at the next agenda planning group

Louise to make sure library activities are added to the Living a Good Life Directory

- This was completed

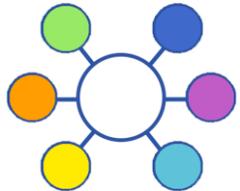

Jane to make a libraries wiki and contact the Libraries team to advise about Easy Read signage

- The welcome guide is now in easy read

- The libraries wiki is nearly finished – we are waiting for photographs from libraries manager

- The welcome to Camden libraries will be on the wiki when ready

- It is hoped this will all be ready at the end of summer

CLDS and libraries to talk about other ways to make libraries more accessible for people with learning disabilities e.g. arrange visits / walk around and offer suggestions, dedicated spaces for people with LD, information and activities.

- A meeting will take place in September with CLDS and the libraries team

- The libraries team will keep being invited to Planning Together to hear new ideas.

Louise to circulate the link to the consultation to all attendees / speak to the Welfare Rights team for more information - about proposed changes to personal independence payments

- This was completed
- The welfare rights team offered to come to a future Planning Together meeting

Louise to share leaflet for the Jobs and Skills even

- This was completed